ATR VERDICT: The consistent Master Dee went from strength to strength last season, culminating in a Grade 3 victory at Kempton in February, for which he received a further 6lb hike from the assessor to leave him tackling a career high mark now. Despite Conor Brace removing 10lb, the door is open for BALLYBOLLEY, who represents a stable in great form at present and he has interestingly dropped back down to the same mark as when successful over C&D in September last year, a race where the former could only manage third. The Unit has been in good order this summer and has to be on the shortlist, while Romain De Senam returns to his last winning figure and has had wind surgery since last sighted.

Top Tip: BALLYBOLLEY (2)

Watch out for: MASTER DEE (1)
