ATR VERDICT: Excellent Team has placed on his last couple of starts in handicap company and merits close consideration on his plating debut with first-time blinkers equipped, but his former stablemate ATLANTIC STORM could edge him out today. Now with David Rees, the 111-rated performer is best treated at these weights and he will also appreciate dropping in class. Atlantic Grey, a winner at this level before disappointing in a Newton Abbot handicap last time, looks next best.

Top Tip: ATLANTIC STORM (3)

Watch out for: EXCELLENT TEAM (1)
