ATR VERDICT: Making Light could hardly have won more easily in this grade at Cork two starts ago but she struggled in a Leopardstown Group 2 latest and has to give lumps of weight to some smart-looking types, including a battalion of Aidan O'Brien runners. The Ballydoyle handler's quartet is led by Could It Be Love according to official figures, though Cork maiden winner Snowflakes looks useful and both Most Gifted and Sarrocchi merit respect. Preference, though, is for MOTEQ, who caught the eye when winning at Leopardstown on debut and showed that this grade holds no fears for the progressive grey when third at Cork last time. Open to any amount of improvement after just two starts, she can strike.

Top Tip: MOTEQ (9)

Watch out for: SNOWFLAKES (12)
