ATR VERDICT: Ayv victor Firewater and the consistent Gabriel The One give Richard Fahey a strong hand but they may have to settle for supporting roles behind CAMELOT RAKTI. James Tate's filly has got better as she has stepped up in distance and the form of her comprehensive Wolverhampton success was boosted when the runner-up went one better next time. There is a handful of interesting nursery newcomers in here, not least Manton Warrior, Golden Parade and Tony Chestnut.

Top Tip: CAMELOT RAKTI (3)
Watch out for: FIREWATER (11)

ATR VERDICT: Usain Boat's first run following a gelding operation was dreadful but perhaps he can show his true colours now he encounters a rain-softened surface again. Even so, he has something to prove, whereas SHALLOW HAL arrives on the back of an impressive Ayr triumph and looks open to even more improvement in testing conditions. Rockshore's two best efforts have come on the Polytrack but he did beat Just Later when they took minor honours at Chelmsford.

Long Handicap: Jo's Girl 8 - 2

ATR VERDICT: Wajaaha has made the frame on each his three starts so far but isn't exactly thrown in on his handicap debut, and DEJA could be better treated. An expensive breeze-up purchase, he left Jeremy Nosedá following a Wolverhampton win and a 13-month absence didn't bother him because he just about made a winning start to life with Peter Chapple-Hyam at Chester. Dark Devil is consistent enough and makes a rare trip away from the Roodee, while heavy going was possibly too much for Armandihan at Ayr and he is better than he showed there.

Top Tip: DEJA (8)

ATR VERDICT: I'LL HAVE ANOTHER is thriving and took her game to a new level when beating all bar an exciting Ballydoyle colt in the Zetland Stakes at Newmarket. The drop back from a mile and a quarter will suit her and she can register the second Listed success of her career. Her connections should know where they stand with Three Comets because they saddled one to account for Roger Varian's juvenile at Epsom. Manuela De Vega did it well on her Salisbury debut and deserves a crack at this sort of prize.

Top Tip: I'LL HAVE ANOTHER (4)

ATR VERDICT: GIFTS OF GOLD was a warm order for his belated introduction and there was plenty to like about his Ripon performance, despite having to play second fiddle to an experienced rival rated 79. The Godolphin inmate should step forward from the outing and is preferred to Imaginative, who showed improvement to fill the runner-up berth at Nottingham on his first start since being gelded. It is concerning that Lord Of The Pace hasn't seen a racecourse so far but with three-time bumper winner Happy Hollow being off for so long, he is put forward for third.

ATR VERDICT: The less competitive of the two divisions and with Muthanaa beaten such a long way at Haydock on Friday, preference is for LADY ANNALEE, who has shown some promise in a couple of appearances over this trip on rain-affected ground. Beer With The Boys boasts the same official rating as Karl Burke's filly but has to give her 5lb, while it is interesting that Joe Fanning partners Baileys Artist, given Mark Johnston's other runner Galitello has marginally the better form.

ATR VERDICT: Bodacious Name brought SO NEAR SO FARHH's winning run to an end over course and distance a couple of weeks ago, but the Mick Channon-trained filly suffered trouble at a crucial stage and can gain her revenge on slightly better terms. Wishing Well, Rubenesque and Hediddodinthe were all behind on that occasion but Cray has winning form here, and Royal Flag registered a deserved victory at Ayr so commands attention as well.

ATR VERDICT: MUSHARRIF has held his form well since a Beverley triumph at the beginning of September and was only just denied at Nottingham most recently. He is up 1lb but has won off higher marks in the past and is the safest option in here. Stewardess' hat-trick bid fell short at Hamilton but has been given seven weeks to get over it. Mr Orange went some way to putting an Ascot no-show behind him when fourth over 6f here, but he hasn't tried this trip for more than two years.
