ATR VERDICT: Although CALL TO ORDER has won over 3m in the past, there is the argument that he is a better horse over intermediate distances and the drop to 2m4f looks ideal for Jonjo O'Neill's gelding. He ran well off this mark at Warwick over 3m1f behind Laurium and has shown his appreciation for decent ground over the summer months. Vivas returned from a five-month absence with a win at Fontwell and is respected off 5lb higher, while Knocknanuss has the potential to make a solid chaser having shown good promise over hurdles last season.

Top Tip: CALL TO ORDER (2)

Watch out for: VIVAS (3)
