Jockey Colours: Red, black epaulets, red sleeves, grey armlets, white cap Timeform says: Finally opened his account with a wide-margin success at Fontwell (21.6f, soft) recently, but combination of 7 lb rise and step back up in trip may prove his undoing here. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 2.88)					Notes:

Jockey Colours: Red, dark blue sleeves, white armlets and star on dark blue cap Timeform says: Overall strike rate is hardly compelling, but hasn't been with this yard long and arrives here on the back of a couple of creditable efforts, plus he won't fail through lack of stamina. ★★★★★ (Forecast 5.00)					Notes:

Jockey Colours: Red and white check, black and white check sleeves, royal blue cap Timeform says: Found more for pressure than is often the case when second at Newton Abbot in July. Has failed to build on that since, but will be a player off this mark if stamina holds out. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 6.00)					Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW:

With questions marks surrounding each member of the quartet for one reason or another, APACHEE PRINCE gets the nod. The 9-y-o clearly doesn't find winning easy, but he's the only one of these guaranteed to stay every yard of this trip and his current mark is a workable one. Diplomatico's standout effort at Newton Abbot during the summer was at around 2m and River of Intrigue's stamina is suspect.
