TIMEFORM VIEW: The vote in this open-looking handicap goes to STAFFA, who has acquitted herself well on both previous visits to this course, including when third off a 2 lb higher mark over C&D in August. Conditions won't be a problem and she gets the nod ahead of John Joiner. Harrison Stickle will be a threat if on-song, but recent Nottingham winner The Golden Cue has more on his plate this time.

TIMEFORM VIEW: ACE VENTURA has failed to build on his 2-y-o promise in a couple of handicaps this season, but there were potentially valid excuses on each occasion and there's a good chance that he'll get back on track under these conditions (Salisbury win last October was on heavy ground). Thistimenextyear performed well over an inadequate trip at Goodwood and is next on the list ahead of Turnpike Trip.

TIMEFORM VIEW: First-time cheekpieces seemingly perked CROWNTHORPE up at Haydock where he went agonisingly close on Friday. If the headgear works just as well second time round, he may well be the answer off the same mark with similar conditions forecast. Crafty Madam is feared most, though Madeleine Bond also looks dangerous now that she has her ground and recent C&D winner Christopher Wood also merits respect.

Livvys Dream raised her game when emerging late on the scene at Kempton last month and she is feared most ahead of Hedging.

TIMEFORM VIEW: With Simon Walker booked and conditions no problem, HIGHWAY ONE is pretty appealing. Indeed, she has shaped fairly well in 2 starts since returning from a break last month and will be fresher than most. Seventii just failed to overhaul Betsalottie in this race 12 months ago and should give it another good shot, while Party Royal (fifth in this last year) and Bluff Crag are others to consider.
