ATR VERDICT: Posh Trish won in good style on her hurdles debut at Chepstow over 2m3f when staying on well to beat Festival Dawn by four lengths. She warrants plenty of respect under a penalty, but could prove vulnerable dropped to 2m so preference goes to smart bumper performer DUHALLOW GESTURE. The daughter of King's Theatre won a Listed bumper at Huntingdon on Boxing Day before posting a solid effort to finish third in a Grade 2 to Getaway Katie Mai at Aintree having attempted to make all the running. Her trainer Anthony Honeyball does very well with mares and she has the potential to prove a smart recruit against her own sex. Sula Island won as she pleased on her first try over hurdles at Market Rasen and is considered along with Ludlow bumper winner Lust For Glory.

Top Tip: DUHALLOW GESTURE (6)

Watch out for: POSH TRISH (2)
