ATR VERDICT: COMMANCHE RED was a decent performer in the NH flat sphere and was considered good enough for a crack at the Grade 2 bumper at Aintree, where he didn't disgrace himself finishing sixth to Portrush Ted. His other bumper efforts were filled with promise, a third at Southwell behind Strong Glance and beating well-touted rivals when scoring at Kempton, and made a pleasing start to his hurdling career here last month. He wouldn't need to improve on that performance to beat Mon Port, who has a lot to prove after a lacklustre display at Fakenham, and Tigeralley, who makes her debut for Dan Skelton.

Top Tip: COMMANCHE RED (1)

Watch out for: MON PORT (2)
