ATR VERDICT: ROBIN WATERS showed considerable promise over hurdles last season from his debut effort for Dan Skelton when third in a strong contest at Newbury behind Santini. He followed that up with a third at Ascot to Clondaw Native before an easy success at Wetherby in February, which set him up for a crack at the Albert Bartlett at Cheltenham. He shaped really well in that contest until getting tired and weakening into fifth behind Kilbricken Storm. He remains open to significant improvement now going chasing and can open his account over fences at the expense of Minella Awards, who was disappointing at Chepstow when a well-beaten third by Drinks Interval.
