ATR VERDICT: REDZOR got off the mark at the third time of asking in the point-to-point sphere at Ballyragget in Ireland and was subsequently sold for 80,000 pounds at the Cheltenham April sale. His dam is a half-sister to 2003 RSA Chase winner One Knight and he represents the same trainer/jockey combination who took this prize 12 months ago with Hear No Evil (runs in the 1.35). Quoi De Neuf cost 180,000 euros at the Goffs Punchestown sale having won his sole point outing at Ballysteen and is a half-brother to Cheltenham Festival winner Qualando, while One For The Team comes from a lovely National Hunt family, related to 2016 Grand National winner Rule The World, and is likely to improve from his bumper win at Wincanton.

Top Tip: REDZOR (5)

Watch out for: QUOI DE NEUF (4)
