ATR VERDICT: RHINESTONE looked the real deal when opening his account last December at Thurles, scoring by 19 lengths from the useful Sancta Simona, who has won three times since including a Grade 3 last time. Joseph O'Brien's Montjeu youngster went on to finish second in a Grade 2 bumper before not being disgraced when well fancied for the Champion Bumper at the Cheltenham Festival. Having been put away since, it would be no surprise to see him become a leading figure in this discipline this season. Stablemate Anywayyoulookatit has to be respected, while Classic Concorde was only beaten a neck on his stable debut for Andrew McNamara in a Down Royal bumper and could prove to be just as useful over hurdles. Point winners Empire Burleque and Envious Editor are others noted.

Top Tip: RHINESTONE (9)
