ATR VERDICT: Espoir D'Allen was a leading fancy for the Triumph Hurdle before an inexplicable performance at the Dublin Racing Festival in February when well beaten by the reopposing Mr Adjudicator. Gavin Cromwell's gelding bids to get his career back on track, but he faces a tough assignment on his return. Mr Adjudicator finished second in the Triumph Hurdle at Cheltenham when having SALDIER in behind back in fifth, but the latter reversed the form at Punchestown and looks to have the scope for further improvement this season.

Top Tip: SALDIER (2)

Watch out for: MR ADJUDICATOR (1)
