ATR VERDICT: DALLAS DES PICTONS was a dual bumper winner in France earlier this year and looks an interesting recruit for Gordon Elliott and Gigginstown with his sire, Spanish Moon, enjoying decent success in the National Hunt sphere so far. Borderline Chatho improved considerably from his hurdles debut when fourth to Boot Camp at Down Royal in June and is respected back up in trip, while School Boy Hours, a half-brother to Finian's Oscar, can hopefully have a clear round after falling on his second start at Cork in May.

Top Tip: DALLAS DES PICTONS (3)

Watch out for: BORDERLINE CHATHO (2)
