ATR VERDICT: Harry Fry took this last season with a winner who went on to land the valuable sales bumper at Newbury in the spring and he unleashes his Jeremy gelding Jeremiah James, who is a half-brother to five-time winner House Rules, this time around. Philip Hobbs saddles two and it is interesting Richard Johnson has chosen to ride the unraced Espion, who requires a market check, while Supreme Soviet is another newcomer to note having cost 40,000 euros and being a half-brother to the useful duo Slate House and Touch Kick. However, Paul Nicholls has a stellar record in this contest run at one of his local tracks and it would be no surprise to see his 125,000-euro purchase FLIC OU VOYOU leave his disappointing Fontwell debut in the past following a summer wind operation.

Top Tip: FLIC OU VOYOU (3)

Watch out for: SUPREME SOVIET (8)
