ATR VERDICT: Quick Grabim has done nothing wrong in both starts so far this season and he won't give up on the hat-trick without a fight, but having to conceding 7lb to the smart FELIX DESJY is a big ask. The five-year-old took high rank in the bumper sphere last season, finishing sixth and fifth in the Champion events at Cheltenham and Punchestown respectively, and he was mightily impressive when making a winning debut over hurdles at Galway last month. Having won the last couple of renewals with Labaik and Mengli Khan, Gordon Elliott clearly likes to run some of his better novices in this contest. Western Victory turned over short-priced favourite Getaway Katie Mai two weeks ago and she rates a live outsider today.

Top Tip: FELIX DESJY (5)

Watch out for: QUICK GRABIM (1)
