ATR VERDICT: Gordon Elliott holds a strong hand here with Campeador and Duca De Thaix, with the latter showing a decent amount of ability over fences on his two chasing appearances so far. Dolciano Dici was not disgraced on his stable debut for Willie Mullins in a Grade 3 hurdle in the winter and having tasted success in France, could be one who achieves bigger and better things over the larger obstacles. However, preference is for JETZ, who placed consistently at Graded level last term and this could be the season he turns those near-misses into notable successes in his new discipline.

Top Tip: JETZ (5)

Watch out for: DOLCIANO DICI (2)
