ATR VERDICT: There was no shame in TIDAL FLOW failing to successfully concede a penalty in a bumper at Wincanton in April when last seen, and the five-year-old looks sure to thrive now upped in distance and sent over the sticks for Phillip Hobbs. He should get a more strongly-run race here and Richard Johnson's homebred son of Black Sam Bellamy is fancied to bounce back. Kootenay River won a race between the flags before finishing second twice in bumper company and is respected, while Before Midnight probably would have won but for unseating Nico De Boinville at Chepstow last month.
