ATR VERDICT: JUST MINDED was fancied by his former connections to make up into a decent handicap chaser last season but things didn't go according to plan as he failed to get off the mark in five attempts. The son of Kayf Tara makes his debut for Olly Murphy and could benefit from both the change of scenery and for a first-time tongue tie. Steps And Stairs ended last season in good heart and could have more to offer, along with Thyne For Gold.

ATR VERDICT: MARIA'S BENEFIT made a smooth transition to fences when proving too strong for Mont Des Avaloirs at Newton Abbot last month and she can only improve from that experience. Stuart Edmunds' mare was the best of these over hurdles and should see off the likes of Jester Jet, who drops back from 2m5f after a good first effort over the larger obstacles at Ffos Las behind Bags Groove, and All Currencies, who is open to improvement now chasing.

ATR VERDICT: BARNEY DWAN ran well enough on his return to action at Chepstow over 2m3f when fifth behind Charbel last month and has been dropped 2lb subsequently. Fergal O'Brien's gelding will benefit from the step back up in trip and looks fairly handicapped. Kerrow was a decent performer as a novice chaser and is respected coming back from a 610-day absence, while Rolling Dylan and Vyta Du Roc rate best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: This looks an ideal opportunity for 12-length point-to-point winner PHOENIX WAY to make a successful start under Rules. Harry Fry's Stowaway gelding arrives with a 270,000 pound price tag and reputation to match following that impressive performance between the flags. Flash The Steel has some useful bumper form to his name and could be the main danger, while Rapper finished fourth in a hot-looking bumper at Worcester last time and is also respected.

ATR VERDICT: Mister Fizz has been in fine form this summer racking up a hat-trick, but a further 4lb rise for his most recent outing makes life tough now 23lb higher than when starting his winning run. Therefore, preference is for Henry Daly's WHATMORE, who was third in Chepstow's Silver Trophy last time and a 1lb rise looks fair with that race often supplying future winners. Present Ranger blew away the cobwebs last month and is dangerous for a top team.

ATR VERDICT: Ardlethen, Morraman and Trio For Rio are all winners between the flags, while Notachance has also run to a decent level in that sphere. None of those would be surprise scorers here, but preference is for FONTLEY HOUSE. The Getaway gelding shaped with tons of promise when third on his debut in a hot Punchestown Festival bumper in April and he is entitled to come on for his reappearance at Chepstow last month. Immediately upped in trip for his hurdles debut, he can be given another chance.

ATR VERDICT: NELSON RIVER has displayed plenty of ability on the level, particularly in recent times when winning at Wolverhampton and runner-up at Pontefract. Representing the shrewd Tony Carroll stable, he will know his job on his first start over timber and gets the vote to edge out Nebuchadnezzar, who is rated slightly lower in the opposite code but hails from a yard that enjoy plenty of success in this sphere. Bold Reason could prove best of those with NH experience.
