ATR VERDICT: Glorious Charmer scored with plenty up his sleeve at Yarmouth, finishing off his race really well, so the extra furlong shouldn't be a problem. A 5lb rise isn't unduly harsh either but he is still passed over in favour of INTRICATE, who was disappointing in a C&D novice contest but her first two runs were better and an initial mark of 72 makes her very appealing, with the application of blinkers a source of potential improvement. Spell is another nursery newcomer with claims, and Tin Hat is consistent for all that the handicapper just about has his measure.

Top Tip: INTRICATE (5)

Watch out for: GLORIOUS CHARMER (2)
