Rightway is another on a good mark based on anything like his best form and will be a threat if the outside stall doesn't prove too much of an inconvenience. Ertidaad is another capable of getting involved.

TIMEFORM VIEW: GLORIOUS CHARMER is 2 from his last 3 (heavy ground penultimate start) and, given the way he powered to the front at Yarmouth last time, he should have little problem stepping up to this trip, so he's taken to get his head in front again at the expense of Spell, who should also benefit from this extra distance. Hold Still is third on the list.
