ATR VERDICT: Sussex Road comes here bidding for more place money, and that should leave a straight duel between Paul Nicholls' Djingle and Nicky Henderson's PACIFIC DE BAUNE. The former showed promise in France in 2017 but looked laboured on his UK debut in February and has a few questions to answer. The selection has had a wind operation since last seen finishing second at Fakenham in April, but he previously won a maiden and novice event over hurdles beating some smart types and likely has more to offer now tackling the larger obstacles.

Top Tip: PACIFIC DE BAUNE (2)

Watch out for: DJINGLE (1)
