ATR VERDICT: REMASTERED made a big impression on his hurdling debut for David Pipe at Ffos Las when striding clear of some decent rivals, including the well-regarded Good Boy Bobby, and he looks the type to prove more than capable of defying a penalty before being aimed at bigger targets later on in the season. Tedham has shown good promise on both his hurdling starts to date behind two useful individuals in Al Dancer at Carlisle and The Big Bite at Chepstow. He is respected along with Come On Teddy, second in his sole bumper here, Hereford bumper winner Apres Le Deluge and Samarquand, who has shown plenty of ability in both his starts to date but is likely to be better suited by longer trips.

Top Tip: REMASTERED (3)

Watch out for: TEDHAM (15)
