ATR VERDICT: MANS NOT TROT made all to win over 1m at Chelmsford last time and could feasibly follow up off 3lb higher now dropping back in trip. Holy Tiber steps up from 6f after turning in an improved performance on turf at Yarmouth but has a wide draw to overcome. Bigger dangers may be Astrospeed, who sports a first-time hood, and Clive Cox's handicap debutant Tamerlane, who steps up beyond 6f for the first time.

Top Tip: MANS NOT TROT (9)

Watch out for: ASTROSPEED (8)

ATR VERDICT: CARNIVAL ROSE shaped with plenty of promise when fourth over track and trip on debut and is entitled to come on appreciably for the run. The main danger may be Croqueta, who steps up in trip after debuting over 6f at Chelmsford in September, though Sea of Reality represents a trainer who can ready a newcomer and would also be one to be interested in if the market vibes were positive.

ATR VERDICT: Shifting Gold makes some appeal on her debut fifth over this trip at Wolverhampton but the form standard set by those with previous experience to their name isn't particularly strong. It could pay to take a chance on one of the newcomers and Martyn Meade's AIRWAVES makes some appeal on breeding, being a sister to four winners at up to a mile. Crimson Kiss and Risaala are other likely types to keep an eye out for in the betting.

ATR VERDICT: HERMOCRATES has shown enough in novice company to suggest that he can go close in a nursery and the son of Farhh remains open to improvement over a mile. A mark of 62 looks fair and he can account for Debbonair, who was deemed good enough to run in a hot novice event at York back in October, and Peters Pudding, who has shaped well the last twice at Wolverhampton and was hampered two weeks ago when making a promising run.

ATR VERDICT: PANMOLLE has finished second on both her starts on the all-weather so far and she can make it third time lucky on her first visit to the Sunbury venue. The daughter of Lawman has a decent draw in stall four to go forward from and can prove too strong for the likes of Astonished, who has taken time to come to hand but is well bred being out of a Listed placed mare, and Yimou, who finished second on debut at Chelmsford when belying his 66/1 odds.

ATR VERDICT: EXCHEQUER won easily here over 7f at the beginning of last month, when given a canny ride by Gerald Mosse, and can handle the drop in trip along with a 5lb rise in the weights. Watchable has finished second on his last couple of starts and looks handicapped to win a prize of this nature, while Busby's recent form entitles him to be in the mix once again.

ATR VERDICT: POINT IN TIME enjoyed his return to the all-weather when a winner here over 1m4f last month and a 3lb rise for that may prove lenient as Mark Ushers's three-year-old attempts to follow up. Lightning Dance almost achieved the same feat when second over track and trip last time and a 1lb higher mark entitles her to plenty of respect, with recent Newcastle third Angelina D'Or another to note.

ATR VERDICT: ZARRAR was a runaway winner here last week when scoring by seven lengths and Brendan Powell's three-year-old should take all the beating once again under a 6lb penalty. Lingfield winner Your Band makes plenty of appeal having thrived when switched to handicapping last time, while Good Impression was only a head away over track and trip back in October and is only 2lb higher this time around.
