ATR VERDICT: Clondaw Westie signed off last term with a chase treble and is worth considering closely on his seasonal return. With the benefit of a recent run to his name, however, preference is instead for penalised Musselburgh scorer CAP ST VINCENT, who had seven lengths in hand at the line in Scotland and arrives on a hat-trick. Darebin has winning C&D form in the book and could also figure if building on a promising run at Fakenham last month.

Top Tip: CAP ST VINCENT (7)

Watch out for: CLONDAW WESTIE (1)

ATR VERDICT: DENILQUIN boasts winning hurdles form in France and is worth monitoring closely in the betting now debuting for Paul Nicholls. Similar comments are applicable to Nigel Twiston-Davies' new recruit, Torpillo, who is sporting a hood on his UK bow. Belargus and Il Re Di Nessuno are other French imports to consider on debut for new connections, though they have been successful on the Flat and lack the hurdling experience of the aforementioned pair.

Top Tip: DENILQUIN (1)

ATR VERDICT: Paul Nicholls won this contest 12 months ago and has another live candidate in MAGOO. The French import underwent wind surgery before making a winning debut on these shores at Fontwell over hurdles in March. He's now debuting over fences and is expected to know his job first time out. The Bottom Bar and Oh Land Abloom have place claims if building on solid recent efforts over timber, while recent C&D second Lithic is unlikely to be far away either, despite a 3lb rise.

Top Tip: MAGOO (3)

ATR VERDICT: DOWN THE HIGHWAY has won between the flags and made a pleasing introduction to his career under Rules, hacking up over the extended 2m3f at Lingfield last month. He's having his second run for Emma Lavelle this afternoon and is an interesting prospect now pitched into Grade 2 company. Alan King has won four of the last nine renewals and so his unbeaten Alsa Mix commands the utmost respect. Grade 3-placed over fences, Paul Nicholls' French import My Way is also worth a market check, having undergone a breathing operation ahead of his UK bow.

ATR VERDICT: FIFTY SHADES was touched off by under a length over 3m1f at Cheltenham last time but he pulled nicely clear of the remainder and is expected to remain competitive off this 3lb higher mark. First-time cheekpieces could be a source of immediate improvement for the selection's stablemate, Potters Corner, who had a recent outing at Exeter, though the main danger may be grade dropper Mendip Express.

Long Handicap: Malangen 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: MY BROTHER hinted his winning turn was fast approaching when runner-up at Cheltenham three weeks ago and is expected to step up on that effort now eased into 0-120 company. Thistimenextyear was active on the level this year and it would come as no surprise to see him figure on his first handicap start over hurdles, while Malangen looked held when falling at Wincanton recently but has place claims on his earlier efforts over timber.
