Timeform says: Irish point winner who is yet to make an impression under Rules and, although showing a bit more promise switched to chasing last time, is unlikely to be suited by this drop in trip. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 51.00)

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: The race that ENOLA GAY contested last time was a fair bit more competitive than the events that both Cap St Vincent and Clondaw Westie have landed whilst racking up multiple wins so, while that prolific pair are regarded as big players, the first-named could be the one to come out on top if his jumping is a little more assured.

TIMEFORM VIEW: An intriguing race. IL RE DI NESSUNO reached a useful level on the Flat in Italy and is selected to make a winning British/hurdling debut for a yard that often introduces its nicer types at this venue. Deniliquin and Torpillo are equally interesting though, setting out for leading connections, having both made successful hurdling debuts in France.
